Legal collections from US, UK, France: LexisLibrary and Juris Classeur
The legal collections from US, UK and France are now available for your organisation. You can now add UK legislation (LexisLibrary) and French law (Juris Classeur) as an extra option with LexisNexis Academic.

LexisLibrary
With LexisLibrary (previously know as LexisNexis Butterworths - LNB), lawyers and information professionals can quickly find up-to-date information, resources and expert opinion from established names such as Butterworths, Tolley and Halsbury’s. With the most up-to-date statement and explanation of the law, practitioners can have complete confidence in the advice they provide. Everyone in your practice can access the same information, at the same time, at the click of a mouse. There’s no need to share precious volumes: simply log into our website. LexisLibrary saves research time, cutting costs and boosting efficiency.

Juris Classeur
This database contains French-language legal information: legislation, regulations and case law. It also gives you access to a great volume of secondary legal sources and expert analysis.

Lexis Middle East Law
Lexis® Middle East Law is an easily searchable and browseable online service providing access to amended legislation, case summaries and commentary on the law of the United Arab Emirates – and supporting current awareness/overviews of the wider Middle East region. Content includes news, analysis and statistics on a country’s foreign relations, policy, and communications, among other topics, and is relevant for researchers at all levels.

Company Dossier
Having accurate, up-to-date information on companies is critical for business majors, job seekers, and anyone performing company-based research. But getting a complete picture of a company’s structure, financial health, brands and competitors can be a challenge. LexisNexis Company Dossier, a research tool used by thousands of business professionals daily, is now being made available to students and researchers seeking information about international companies.
- Business students can easily compare up to 5 companies and download financial statements for finance courses
- Students and career services departments can obtain comprehensive reports on companies during job searches
- Journalism and business students can easily track companies’ latest news and PR developments
Use the included Company Dossier module in Academic to retrieve detailed company information and financial performance measures or identify and compare companies matching specific criteria.

Intellectual Property
TotalPatent, the patent research database by LexisNexis, provides access to all published patent documents for research, retrieval and analysis. TotalPatent has the broadest and deepest collection of patent information from around the world. Patent content is accessible and searchable from the start of publication till current for 100 countries, of which 30 have full-text coverage. The recently added collections of the BRIC (Brazil, Russia, India & China) countries and the Asian content makes TotalPatent the most complete patent research tool globally available.

In addition to the standard Boolean searching functionality, LexisNexis® have developed the world’s most advanced semantic searching functionality. The semantic search feature in TotalPatent can help improve your prior art and technology landscaping searching by suggesting concepts that relate semantically to your patent search query. You can then choose to narrow your search results by interacting further with the semantic QueryCloud or by using traditional Boolean search terms.
